The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 6. to Tuesday November 9. 1725.

Hague, November 13. N. S.

GEneral Hompesch is returned hither with the Detachment of Troops that had been sent to Vianen, which Lordship is now in the Possession of the States of the Province of Holland. The Electoral Prince of Bavaria, and his Brother Duke Ferdinand, arrived here on the 9th Instant, and this Morning set out for Amsterdam, thence to proceed to Germany. They were last Night at a Ball and Supper given by the French Ambassadour on Occasion of the King his Master's Marriage; which he would have celebrated sooner, had not his Lady fallen ill of the Small-Pox, of which she is now recovered. Most of the Members of the States of Holland are arrived here, in order to open their Assembly To-Morrow. M. Hop, Envoy from the States General to His Britannick Majesty, having desired Leave to come hither on Occasion of the Death of the late Treasurer his Father, their High Mightinesses Leave was sent to him this Morning. His Brother is likewise to set out from Paris the 15th Instant to return hither. The Count de Tarouca having received Orders from the Court of Lisbon to repair to that of Vienna, is preparing to begin his Journey thither about a Fortnight hence.

Gohre, Oct. 28, O. S. Yesterday the King had very good Sport a Hunting, and killed three Stags. In the Evening was celebrated the Feast of St. Hubert, famous among Hunters. After Supper his Highness Prince Frederick, and the chief of the Gentlemen and Ladies of the Court, danced before the King two or three Hours. The Lord Waldgrave, who was sent by His Majesty to compliment the most Christian King upon his Marriage, arrived here this Morning from Paris, and immediately waited on His Majesty, who received him very graciously.

Charitable Corporation-House in Spring-Garden, Nov. 9, 1725.

The Court of Committee of the said Corporation hereby give Notice, That pursuant to Resolutions and Orders of the last General Court, Books will be opened at the other House of the said Corporation in Fenchurch-street, London, upon Tuesday the 23d of November Instant, for taking a Subscription for 30000 l. Fund, to be raised pursuant to their Charter, and for 60000 l. more, Part of the 70000 l. allowed of by His Majesty's Licence of Enlargement, for the immediate raising a Fund for the said Corporation; and that the Proprietors of the said Original 30000 l. may subscribe for the said 30000 l. and likewise for the 60000 l. Enlargement, in Proportion to their several Interests in the said Original 30000 l. within Thirty Days from the Date hereof, paying down 5 l. per Share, or 25 l. per Cent. upon the whole: In Default or Neglect whereof they will forfeit their Right of making the said Subscription. Attendance will be given at the said House in Fenchurch-street, upon Tuesday the 23d Instant aforesaid, and Thursday and Friday following, and every Day from Monday following to the End of the said 30 Days, from Ten in the Morning to Three of the Clock in the Afternoon.

General Post-Office, Oct. 7, 1725.

Whereas upon a strict Examination of the Rider, together with the Circumstances, which are since found to agree with his Relation, it does appear that the Cross-Road Mail which constantly goes between Chester and Exeter, was really taken away from the Rider upon Sunday the 26th of September last, about Three a-Clock in the Morning, by two Men on Horseback, near Pensford, a Village about seven Miles from Bristol, in the Road to Wells, who carried off the entire Mail, which had in it the Bags of Letters of the several Towns of Chester, Whitchurch, Shrewsbury, Bridgnorth, Bewdley, Kidderminster, Worcester, Tewksbury, Glocester, Wetten-Underidge, Bristol, Wells, Bridgwater, Taunton, Wellington, Tiverton and Exeter; and Expresses having been immediately, the very same Morning, sent away from Bristol to Chester and Exeter, to give Notice of the Accident to the several Post Towns mentioned, and their Dependencies, and no Notice having been as yet sent to the General Post-Office at London, of any Bank Notes, or other Notes, or Bills, that were in the said Mail, with Endorsements upon them, according to the Method proposed in the Advertisement so long published in the Prints, it is to be presumed that there were no such Notes, or Bills in the said Mail. This is to advertise, that whoever shall apprehend the Persons who stole the Mail, or either of them, so that they, or either of them, be convicted of the Robbery, that over and above the Money they will be entitled to from the County where the Robbery was committed, they will also be entitled to the Reward of 200 l. for each of them. And also, if either of the said Persons who have committed the said Robbery, or any of their Accomplices, shall come in and make a Discovery of the said Robbery, so that they or either of them be apprehended and convicted thereof, such Person will not only be entitled to the Rewards abovementioned, but also to His Majesty's most gracious Pardon, as formerly published in the Gazettes by His Majesty's special Command.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, whether concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.
